JUDGE DOUGLAS.

The unwelcome conviction is forced up-on us, that Judge Douglas can not longer be considered a rember of the Democratic party. We make the announcement with deeper sorrow and regret than we have words to express. He has litterally son, Montgomery, Stewart, Cheutham and Dicksold himself-for nothing. He has thrown himself into the arms of a political faction

17 Office on Strawberry Alley, Clarksville, Tenn. of unprincipled fanaties, who will use him with the hope of producing a disruption in the Democratic party, when they will cast him aside. They will never acknowledge him for a permanent leader, though they may seemingly follow in his wake for attention to any business confided to us in the line of our profession. a time. The Black Republican may be fond of treason, but not of traitors. It is a melancholy subject to contemplate, to see a man deliberately committing political suicide. He has dug his own grave, and

The official correspondence of the morning paper in this city, which is the mouth-piece of the bolters and disorganizers, says that Judge Douglas has barely commenced the contest—that is, with his old support-ers, his tried, true, faithful, devoted friends. It is a most unkind return for all the sacrifices they have made in his behalf, but we suppose we must bear with this new develepment of political apostacy and ingrati-tude, with what philosophy we may. It is the most astonishing event in the history of politicians. We cannot but believe that he is laboring under temporary insanity. At any rate he has openly deserted the Democratic party, and is no longer to be recognized as a member of our poli
